

WEEK 15: The Galápagos

■ Using the Right Word, Apostrophe (Possessives), Subject-Verb Agreement, Capitalization, Quotation Marks

Almost directly South of Guatemala, at the equator, lay the Galápagos islands. The spanish name for these islands are the Archipiélago de Colón. Pirates treasures was once hidden there! Today the island group are famous for its reptilian population. Marine iguanas, lizards, and giant tortoises calls it home. The islands are actually named for those tortoises. Galápagos are the Spanish word for turtles.

Corrected Paragraph

Almost directly ^sSouth of Guatemala, at the equator, ^{lie}lay the Galápagos ⁱislands. The ^sspanish name for these islands ^{is}are the Archipiélago de Colón. Pirates ^vtreasures ^{were}was once hidden there! Today the island group ^{is}are famous for its reptilian population. Marine iguanas, lizards, and giant tortoises ^{call}calls it home. The islands are actually named for those tortoises. ^vGalápagos ^vis are the Spanish word for turtles.