

WEEK 4: Old Gold Fred

- Using the Right Word, Wordy Sentence, Apostrophe, End Punctuation, Subject-Verb Agreement, Abbreviations

Goldfish kept in homes usually don't lives five years. Considering that he lived to be 41 years old, Fred is the oldest goldfish on record. Mr. Wilson, Fred's owner, must have made a special point of taking care of his fishbowl pet and giving it lots of attention. He changed Fred's water and cleaned Fred's fishbowl regularly. I wonder if Mister Wilson talked too Fred, to. Dont you wonder what Fred ate .

Corrected Paragraph

Goldfish kept in homes usually don't ^{live} ~~lives~~ five years. Considering that he lived to be 41 years old, Fred is the oldest goldfish on record. Mr. Wilson, Fred's owner, must have made a special point of taking care of his fishbowl pet ~~and giving it lots of attention.~~ He changed Fred's water and cleaned Fred's fishbowl regularly. I wonder if ^{Mr.} ~~Mister~~ Wilson talked ^{to} ~~too~~ Fred, ^{to} ~~to~~. Dont you wonder what Fred ate[?]